> And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you, short and brief, A small hotel experience Which filled my heart with grief: Last summer, at the Pavillen Hetel, I stopped a week or more. And marked two " boot-eas" every morn Before my neighbor's door; Two boots with patent leather tips, Two boots walch seemed to say, " An angel trots around in us," They stole my heart away; And often in my nightly dreams They swept before my face, A lady growing out of them As flowers grow from a vase. But ah! one morn I saw a sight Which struck me like a stone, Some other name was on the book Those books were not sione! A great tall pair of other boots Was standing by their side, And off they walked one afternoon And with them walked-a bride.

Amount's reflection outlit to convince a sensible man A of the folly and danger of constantly dosing with Cathertic Medicines. The practice is pernicious and suicidal. An experience of forty years has taught me that the constantly increasing evils of indigestion are fearfully aggravated by the too free use of Cathartics. The American people are fast becoming a nation of dyspeptics by their artificial modes or life. Drastic Cathartics increase the irritability, and prestrate the strength of the increase the irritability, and prostrate the strength of the dicestive organs.

The Pills now offered are especially designed to allay

They are so mild and invigorating that one is not reminded by any disagregable effects that he has taken mealeties.
